

JOBS WE DO

Library Workers

AFSCME represents more than 25,000 library workers nationwide - more than any other union. AFSCME is a leading advocate for equitable pay for library workers and for full funding for public libraries. From the Library of Congress and public libraries in Boston, New York, the District of Columbia, Chicago, Detroit, Los Angeles, Seattle/King County to public, school, college and university libraries nationwide, AFSCME librarians and library workers serve thousands of patrons every day.

National Library Workers Day

Library workers always stand up for us. Let's stand up for them.

On National Library Workers Day, we honor and pledge to fight for these dedicated professionals.
