RECEIVED

Dear Mr. Lenvin:

Pursuant to the understanding reached at our meeting in the office of Mr. Katzenbach on October 22nd, I write to give you the outline of the information to be submitted to you by the American Zionist Council.

It is proposed that a report covering the expenditures of the Department of Information and Public Relations for the period April, May and June 1962 will be submitted to you, such report to contain the details of expenditure under the following headings:

1. Administrative Expense. This item, consisting of payroll, insurance costs, supplies, etc., will be given in total rather than in detail.
2. Meetings, Speakers' fees and Expenses. These expenditures will be set forth in detail, with individual names listed separately.
3. Written Materials. These expenditures will be set forth in detail.
4. Television, Radio and Films. These expenditures will be set forth in detail.
5. Subventions. These expenditures will be set forth in detail.
6. Visitors to Israel. These expenditures will be set forth in detail, with individual names listed separately.

Noted
RL
11/9/64

The report will contain a statement that the reporting period chosen is a fair representation of the expenditures of this Department for any and all other three-month periods, and that the items set forth, when projected over a yearly period, would approximate the annual costs for each item.

DOCKETED

NATHANIEL S. ROTHENBERG

Nathan B. Lenvin, Esq.

I would appreciate your advice as to whether the outline set forth above is satisfactory to you and will comply with our understanding.

May I express to you my deep appreciation of the courtesy shown me by Mr. Katzenbach, Mr. Yeagley and yourself at our meeting.

Sincerely yours,

NATHANIEL S. ROTHENBERG
