UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

Memorandum

TO : Walt Yeagley Walt

FROM : Ed Guthman

SUBJECT: American Zionist Council

DATE: Feb. 10, 1964

Mr. LavinMrs. Bowman

I don't see how we can accept a caveat that an organization won't submit information that might prejudice it publicly. I hope Nat Lavin made clear to Mr. Rothenberg that is not the test. I think we should advise Rothenberg that the worst thing the Council can do publicly is to stall and delay in submitting the financial information which the law clearly requires.

Irene: I don't think the above is quite justified since I did not indicate that we would accept any "caveat" - But let's wait & see what is submitted.
