An official website of the United States government   Here's how you know

FOIA Home

Making a FOIA Request

FOIA Library

Records Management

Mandatory Declassification Review

About Us/Contact Us

FOIA Home > FOIA Library

FOIA Library

Before submitting a request for Department of State records, you may wish to discover whether the information you are seeking is publicly available.

Search Released Documents

Search over 500,000 Department of State records, including documents released to the public under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), special projects, discretionary releases, and document collections.

FOIA Reports

View Annual Reports, Chief FOIA Officer Reports, and Quarterly FOIA Reports.

Administrative Rulings, Policy Statements, and Department Publications

Access various regulations, policy statements, historical documents, publications, and more.

Collections/Discretionary Releases

Documents released to the public under the Freedom of Information Act as special projects and Mandatory or Discretionary Declassification Review. These documents can also be searched for in the Search Released Documents page.

View 1973-1979 Telegrams Transferred to NARA ↗

Telegrams from the years 1973 through 1979 have been transferred to the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA). They are available through the NARA Access to Archival Databases (AAD) web page.

Case Act Reporting

Information published in accordance with the Case-Zablocki Act.

Microfiche Documents

Documents previously available in the Department's Public Reading Room.

FOIA Logs

A list of requests made to the U.S. Department of State from 2005 to the present.

Last modified on: 02/21/2025